

ESCUELA NORMAL SUPERIOR "VICTORINO VIALE"

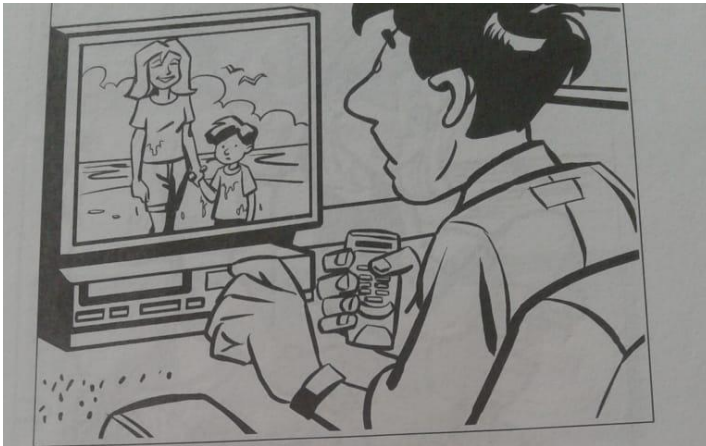

TRABAJO DE INGLÉS

CURSO: 5° 1ª.

DOCENTE: TOMATIS, MARÍA DEL ROSARIO

FECHA: OCTUBRE 22, 2020

TEMA: PAST CONTINUOUS

Craig was sitting in front of the TV yesterday evening. He wasn't watching the programme because he was putting a new battery in his mobile phone. He was feeling angry because he was waiting for his girlfriend Alice to come to dinner and, as usual, she was late.

Suddenly he heard the name Alice Murray. He looked at the TV and he saw his girlfriend. Alice was standing on the beach. She was wearing shorts and a T-shirt but they were wet. She was holding a little boy's hand and she was smiling. The TV man said, 'Four-year-old Martin Mulligan can't swim. He was playing on the beach when a big wave pulled him out to sea. Alice saved him. She swam out to him and brought him back.'
